Lesson-20

Agra City

Agra is a small city. It is a famous city. The tourists come from all parts of the world to see Taj Mahal. We reached Taj Mahal at 10 O' clock. The bus stopped.

The teacher said: Stand beside the front door, Nabeel. Boys, stand in a queue and get down one by one through the front door. Stand beside the back door,Zainab. Girls, stand in a queue and get down one by one through back door. Driver and cleaner, wait here for us in the bus, we will come back in two hours, Insha Allah.

We got down and started moving in the queue with the teacher and we saw Taj Mahal from close. We saw the cemetery of Mughal King Shajahan and his wife Mumthaz Mahal. Taj Mahal is a beautiful building made by white marbles. Shajahan built it in the remembrance of his wife Mumthaz Mahal.After seeing Taj Mahal, we wandered in the city and returned to the school at 5 p.m.

Lesson-21
The market

One day, I went with my friends to the Red Fort in Delhi and we saw historical monuments in it. When we came out and walked towards left, we saw a big and straight road in front of us after the traffic signal. There is a big and famous market in this street by the name of Chandni chowk.

This market starts from the beginning of this street and ends at Fatehpur mosque. In it, there are many shops and different stores on both the sides. We can buy different things like watches, vessels, shoes, bags, clothes, etc.

We walked on the way, wanted to cross the street but traffic police stopped us and said: Don't cross the street when the signal is red, so we stopped and crossed after the signal became green.

We entered in a shoe shop. I took a shoe in my hand, a man came to us and said: please don't touch. Please, come and sit here, I will help you in choosing shoes. We have fixed rates, so please don't ask for discounts. We bought a collection of shoes. After that, we went to the Raymond shop to buy clothes but one friend said: Don't enter this shop because this is its closing time. There is Krishna market near from here, there are many shops for clothes in it and they will be open till night.

Lesson-22
The mosque

The mosque is a house for worshiping Allah(God) .Muslims go to mosque to pray and to read the Holy Quran .There are many mosques in our country India . Once we went to our friend Nabil's town and saw a big and beautiful mosque in this town .There is a big and clean water basin in mosque's yard and there is a beautiful garden in front of the mosque. Boys and girls started playing in the garden, I saw some children plucking the flower, I Said: Don't pluck the flowers, boys and girls .Why are you standing here, girl? Don't stand here, go to your house.

I went with my son Mohamed to the mosque for afternoon prayer, People and boys came to the mosque. I went with my son Mohamed to the basin for ablution. We sat with other worshippers around the basin for ablution. Mohamed washed his legs in the basin, I told him "Mohammed, don't wash your leg in the basin, the water in the basin is clean. People, don't wash your legs in the basin". Worshippers performed the act of ablution for the prayer and the boys performed the act of ablution for the prayer. A muezzin climbed up to the mosque's minarat for the prayer call. Mohamed and some boys climbed up to the mosque's minarat with muezzin. I said, " Mohamed, don't climb the minarat. Boys, don't climb the mosque minarat. Boys, this is the time for prayer, come, pray with us".

The player

A player gains respect for him, for his people and for his nation. He works hard to reach his goal. He is a successful person. An active player is sincere in his work and systematic in his time. He is very fit. A game is very useful for health. That is why, it is said: "A healthy body is a carrier of healthy brain". In some games like chess and wrestling, there are only two players and in other games like football and cricket and basketball, two teams of players will play.

We are going (male and female) to watch different games as per our wish and interest. Spectators (male and female) will be happy by good games. Government provides facilities for male and female players. Male and female winners get prizes and gifts from government.

Lesson-24
In the restaurant

Yesterday evening we went to the restaurant near our house. This restaurant is clean and inexpensive and "welcome" is written in capital letters on its door. This restaurant is famous in this area. The restaurant is divided into two sections; vegetarian and non-vegetarian meals sections. All different delicious meals are being served in them. The kitchen door is locked. Entering in it is forbidden.

Fried and grilled chicken and mutton are available in the restaurant as well as mutton and chicken which are cooked in different ways. Different kinds of cooked rice with meat and without it are also available in it and for vegetarians, different types of food made up of cheese and fresh vegetables are available.

People come to this restaurant to eat different meals; breakfast, lunch and dinner and come to drink tea, coffee and cold drinks; Pepsi, Rooh Afza, milkshake and ice creams and to eat sweets, snacks and other foods and drinks.

We asked the waiter the menu of available foods in that evening. We chose from it what we ate of cooked food with meat and vegetables and we ate gulab jamun and drank Arabian coffee. The food was clean and tasty. When we wanted to pay the bill, the manager of the restaurant said to pay only half amount of the bill and the other half will be paid by the owner, because the day was his birthday.
