

2 February, 2020

| ISM-QUESTION A DAY- CLASS III |  |              |           |
|--------------------------------------|--|--------------|-----------|
| 1)                                   | Which one is an odd number less than 29 and greater than 19? |              |           |
|                                      | a) 24  | b) 25        | c) 17     |
| 2)                                   | When caught by an enemy, the breaks off its tail.            |              |           |
|                                      | a) zebra   | b) porcupine | c) lizard |
| 3)                                   | In which form does matter not flow?                          |              |           |
|                                      | a) Solid   | b) Liquid    | c) Gas    |
| 4)                                   | Shyam is studying at University in India.                    |              |           |
|                                      | a) a   | b) an        | c) the    |
|                                      |  |              |           |

A QUESTION A DAY- CLASS III

Answers -30 January, 2020

1) 19

2) funny

3) Jupiter

4) Diamond