INVESTITURE CEREMONY FOR STUDENT LEADERS (SENIOR SECTION)

Dear Students and Parents,

Greetings from Indian School Muscat!

As the student leaders in the Senior Section have been democratically elected, it is time for investing them of their responsibilities. The school is planning to organise the investiture ceremony virtually on Saturday, 31st October 2020 at 4 p.m. on Zoom meeting. Therefore all the Prefects from Classes IX to XII, House Captains, Vice Captains, and the Junior and Senior Student Council members are requested to adhere to the following instructions for the smooth conduct of the investiture ceremony:

- They all are expected to attend the ceremony. The meeting ID will be shared one hour before the ceremony. They should join the meeting using their full names and GR Numbers.
- They need to wear the school uniform neatly.
- They should be properly groomed as per the school rules – proper haircut and well groomed.
- They need to attend the programme by keeping their camera on and the mic muted.
- They should follow the instructions of the compere during the programme.

In order to prepare for the Investiture Ceremony, a trial run of the programme shall be organised on Thursday, 29th October 2020 at 9 a.m. All the Prefects, House Captains, Vice Captains and the Council members are requested to attend the trial run as well in decent attire.

All other students and parents are invited to watch the event live on YouTube by using the below link:
