CIRCULAR TO PARENTS OF CLASSES V TO VIII
ONLINE LIVE CLASSES (THIRD PHASE)

Dear Parent,

Greetings from Indian School Muscat!!

As we are commencing the second term of this academic year and also keeping the current COVID pandemic situation in mind, the following amendments will be incorporated in online classes w.e.f. Sunday, October 4, 2020.

- * Online Live Classes will now be held in individual classrooms instead of in combined classes to make it more interactive and effective. Students are already a part of these classrooms. So, no new invitation will be received by the students.
- * Video recordings, Study materials and assignments will now be posted in these individual classrooms.
- * In case you want any previous recordings for future reference, you may download it in your device on or before October 8, 2020 from the combined classrooms. The combined classes will be dissolved after October 8, 2020.
- * Owing to the demand from parents, the number of English and Second Language periods in Classes VII and VIII has been increased to three. There will be an increase of two periods/week for classes VII & VIII as mentioned in the general circular.
- * On Sundays and Tuesdays, Class VIII will have an additional period from 9:15 a.m. to 9:50 am. and on Mondays and Wednesdays, Class VII will have an additional period from 11:30 a.m. to 12:05 p.m.
- * Day wise timetable will be shared to you by your class teacher.

- * Classes having language combinations, the second language and third language classes will be held in a separate classroom.

Students are once again reminded to be on time for the classes and not to use school official id for any other purposes such as for creating social networking site ids, registering for games, creating meeting links for friendly gatherings etc. Students are reminded not to use the chat box for passing any personal/private message. Stringent action will be initiated against those who violate this. Students are required to be decently dressed during the live sessions. Any Student trying to enter the google classroom other than the official email id will be denied the access.

With warm regards,

Dr Rajeev Kumar Chauhan
Principal
