

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT
DEPARTMENT OF ARABIC
CLASS:IX
LESSONS TRANSLATION

Lesson:1

Army of my country

I am an Indian. And India is my country. I love my country very much. We are the people who love peace. We are in favour of love and peace with the neighboring countries. We do not like war with the neighbors. But we have a strong army to defend our nation. In the Military of our country, we have strong men among them:- The Air Force ,The Naval Force, The Artillery and The Cavalry are all among them. All of these love the nation. Our strong army and the fellow citizens are well prepared to defend our nation courageously and fearlessly. India is a Democratic nation. There are different religions:- There are Muslims, Hindus , Jains , Sikhs, Buddhists etc, and they live in love and peace . And we always stand side – by – side to defend our nation from evils and enemies. I would like to be a soldier in the army of my nation.

Lesson :2

Post Office

This is an office. This is a post office. The post office is near my house. The post office is opened and the post man is there from morning till evening. The post master is also present. The post man is a government staff, and the post master too is a government staff. The post master is sitting in his office. The post man is a known and honoured person in cities and villages.

The post master: What are you doing now Oh Postman?

The post man: I am sorting the post and putting in my bag.

The post master: Are you going out after an hour to distribute the post?

The post man: Yes sir, I am going out to distribute the post after an hour or 1 ½ hours.

The post master: For whom is this big parcel?

The post man: This big parcel is for your friend Mr.Krishan.

The post master: Mr.Krishan is coming after an hour to meet me.

The post man: This registered letter is to Mr.Jameel.

The post master: Who is Mr.Jameel?

The post man: He is the principal of Rajaram College.

The post master: Well, I am happy with your vast knowledge about the owners of the post and their addresses.

The post man: Thank you sir, I am also happy.

Lesson-3

Public bus station.

This is a station. This is a big station. This is a public bus station. That is a public vehicle. That public vehicle is big.

This is a window. This is a ticket window. That is a woman. That woman is standing in line in front of a ticket window. This line is long. That is a man . That man is a driver. This man drives public vehicles..

These men are standing , waiting to travel the public vehicles. These women are also waiting to travel in public vehicles. That is a youngster. That youngster is carrying the luggage of the passengers for wage.

Those women and men are also waiting to travel in public vehicles.

There are number of public buses. Every one is traveling in the public vehicle to go to his destination. There are workers in the station. Among them are drivers, conductors, the typists on type writers and computer and other works like cleaning the station and office , station security and assisting staff for the passengers.

Lesson -4

Railway Station

This is a station – this is a train – That is a passenger – That is a locomotive – these are trains- Those are stations - those are passengers. These are locomotives. These are the people came to send off others.(المودعون) those are the receivers- these are the porters – those are travelers.

Railway stations are plenty in India. In villages it is small. And in cities it is big. It is crowded with passengers and with those who come to send off (the people) - And the receivers day and night. There are offices for the staff. There is waiting room. This is information office. Those are windows for ticket booking and sale. The passengers are waiting in lines to buy tickets. The ticket is a small card in thick paper on which the fare of the ticket , name of departing station and arrival , date of travel, its class and train number etc are printed.

These are the porters. They are waiting for the passengers. And they carry their luggage on their heads to the train. Some passengers are boarded and some are waiting for their train. Some people are standing near the restaurants on the platform ,eating snacks, drinking tea and coffee and cool drinks.

Lesson: 5 The village life

Life in the village is different from that of the city. The life system of the villagers are one system. As if they are one family living in the village. All of them wake up in the morning before the sun rise and they go to their work in the farms and fields. The woman take part in their work with the men. The men and women go out in groups.

This is a woman with her neighbor and this is a girl with her friends and this is a man with his groups. The fields are full of men , women and children. These men are engaged in watering their fields and these women are busy in collecting the fruits fallen in the night . That man is watering the mango tree and that woman is feeding her baby. Those men are cultivate the fields and those women clean the seeds. There are plenty of trees in the farm. These are apple trees and those are orange trees. The villagers breeds the cows , the buffaloes goats and sheep etc from the domestic animals.

Lesson :6 My school

This is my school. My school is situated in old Delhi. The school is old. For the school there is a old and beautiful building. There are rooms for every class. In the school, there is a library. The library opens from morning till evening. In the library there are plenty of books. In the middle of the library there is a big table for reading. There are books and news papers and magazines on the table. There is a beautiful garden in the school. In the garden there is a big pond. In the school there is a playground . The students play various games during the recess time and in the evening . We go to the school in the morning at 7.00 and we study up to 1 pm. Some students come to the school in the evening and they play in the school The birds come to the garden in the evening and they sing on the trees until the sunset.

Lesson :7 Steel Factory

This is a factory. This is a steel factory. This is hamid. Hamid is working un the steel factory. This is Khalid. He is a friend of hamid and his neighbor. He is working in the restaurant of the factory. This factory is situated in Patna, the capital of Bihar state. The factory building is big. In the factory building there is a steel workshop and the office of the factory owner and rest room . On the right side the restaurant of the factory is situated and in the left side there is the guest house. The workers and the guests take food from this restaurant and they drink the cool drinks and hot drinks as per their wish. The owner of the factory is a good man .His name is Rashid. He loves work and the workers of the factory. This factory is famous among the countries of the world. The business men come there to buy their needs steel.

Lesson : 8 The college

This is a college affiliated to the university of Delhi. Its building is big and beautiful. This is main door of the college. It has two other side also. At the door there is guard and he is strong and active person. He permits only the students to enter. There are number of section in the college among them are dept. of Arabic and dept of English and other science sections. The students come from different parts of India and students from foreign countries as well. In the college there are two hostels for boys(students)and girls. Some students stay in the hostel and some of them come in the morning from their homes. In the college there are rooms for teaching and the students spend there.

The teachers in this college are specialist and experts in their subjects. This is the library building . The students come there to read books and newspaper, books in library are plenty and very useful. In this college there are offices for the staff and office for the principal. The staff help the children in the admission formalities. They are available to help the students, professors and workers in the college.

Lesson:9 The garden

Garden is a beautiful place. There is a garden near by our house. In this garden there are beautiful flowers and leafy trees and green grass and hanging flower pots. There are private and public gardens. The public gardens are crowded with excursionists in the morning and evening.

There are big public gardens in the cities. The municipality takes care of its cleanliness. For these gardens there are big and spacious doors (entrances). And there are iron seats and shady trees and various games for small children. We will be happy in beautiful , clean gardens.(Sometimes) we find green parrots and dancing peacocks and colorful butterflies and different sparrows etc.

*****