The teacher entered the class. The students (male and female) stood up to respect him. The teacher sat on his chair and the students (male and female) sat on their chairs.

The teacher: Mohammed, where is your book?

Mohammed: This is my book, sir.

The teacher: Open your book, Mohammed and read the lesson. Boys, open your books and read the lesson.

The teacher: Fatima, where is your notebook?

Fatima: This is my notebook, sir.

The teacher: open your notebook Fatima and write the difficult words and their meanings. Open your notebooks, girls and write the difficult words and their meanings.

The teacher: Children, I am extremely happy by you. You are hardworking students (male, female). Tomorrow we will be in holiday, and the weather these days is nice, let's go on a picnic to Agra to see Taj Mahal. What's your opinion?

Students (male): we are agreeing. Let's go.

Students (female): we are agreeing. Let's go.

The teacher: Okay, we will take a taxi for all of us and will go to Agra for seeing Taj Mahal. We will go in the morning and we will come back in the evening at 5 o'clock, Inshallah.

Lesson-20

Agra City

Agra is a small city. It is a famous city. The tourists come from all parts of the world to see Taj Mahal. We reached Taj Mahal at 10 O'clock. The bus stopped.

The teacher said: Stand beside the front door, Nabeel. Boys, stand in a queue and get down one by one through the front door. Stand beside the back door,Zainab. Girls, stand in a queue and get down one by one through back door. Driver and cleaner, wait here for us in the bus, we will come back in two hours, Insha Allah.

We got down and started moving in the queue with the teacher and we saw Taj Mahal from close. We saw the cemetery of Mughal King Shajahan and his wife Mumthaz Mahal. Taj Mahal is a beautiful building made by white marbles. Shajahan built it in the remembrance of his wife Mumthaz Mahal.After seeing Taj Mahal, we wandered in the city and returned to the school at 5 p.m.

Lesson-21

The market

One day, I went with my friends to the Red Fort in Delhi and we saw historical monuments in it. When we came out and walked towards left, we saw a big and straight road in front of us after the traffic signal. There is a big and famous market in this street by the name of Chandni chowk.

This market starts from the beginning of this street and ends at Fatehpur mosque. In it, there are many shops and different stores on both the sides. We can buy different things like watches, vessels, shoes, bags, clothes, etc.

We walked on the way, wanted to cross the street but traffic police stopped us and said: Don't cross the street when the signal is red, so we stopped and crossed after the signal became green.

We entered in a shoe shop. I took a shoe in my hand, a man came to us and said: please don't touch. Please, come and sit here, I will help you in choosing shoes. We have fixed rates, so please don't ask for discounts. We bought a collection of shoes. After that, we went to the Raymond shop to buy clothes but one friend said: Don't enter this shop because this is its closing time. There is Krishna market near from here, there are many shops for clothes in it and they will be open till night.

Lesson-22

The mosque

The mosque is a house for worshipping Allah(God) .Muslims go to mosque to pray and to read the Holy Quran .There are many mosques in our country India . Once we went to our friend Nabil's town and saw a big and beautiful mosque in this town .There is a big and clean water basin in mosque's yard and there is a beautiful garden in front of the mosque. Boys and girls started playing in the garden, I saw some children plucking the flower, I Said: Don't pluck the flowers, boys and girls .Why are you standing here, girl? Don't stand here, go to your house.

I went with my son Mohamed to the mosque for afternoon prayer, People and boys came to the mosque. I went with my son Mohamed to the basin for ablution. We sat with other worshippers around the basin for ablution. Mohamed washed his legs in the basin, I told him "Mohammed, don't wash your leg in the basin, the water in the basin is clean. People, don't wash your legs in the basin". Worshippers performed the act of ablution for the prayer and the boys performed the act of ablution for the prayer. A muezzin climbed up to the mosque's minarat for the prayer call. Mohamed and some boys climbed up to the mosque's minarat with muezzin. I said, " Mohamed, don't climb the minarat. Boys, don't climb the mosque minarat. Boys, this is the time for prayer, come, pray with us".
