Dear Sirs

Subject: Your Order for Woollen Clothes at Reduced Prices.

We thank you for your order dated 7th August,2017 for woollen clothes garments along with your proposal for reducing our prices on certain items.

We have carefully considered your proposal but regret that it is hard for us to execute the order on these terms. You will appreciate that our goods are of the best quality in the market and are quite competitively priced. We maintain very high manufacturing standards and play on a very small margin to bring best value for money to our esteemed customers.

All this together with the recent hike in the prices of raw materials, especially pure new wool from Australia, makes it impossible to offer you the prices you have quoted. While we offer you our sincere apologies, we are ready to extend the credit period for payments from 45 days to 60 days.

We hope you will understand our position and continue to patronise us with your valuable business. Do please let us know at the earliest if we should go ahead with your order.

Yours sincerely
