i. The king of Iran had heard that Birbal was one of the wisest men in the East. He wanted to meet Birbal, so he sent him an invitation to visit his country. In due course, Birbal arrived Iran.

ii. When he entered the palace he was puzzled to find not one, but six kings seated there. All were dressed in kingly robes. Birbal began to think, 'Who is the real king?' The very next moment, he got the answer. Confidently, he approached the King and bowed to him.

"But how did you identify me" The king asked, puzzled.

iii. Birbal smiled and explained; "The false kings were all looking at you, while yourself looked straight ahead. Even in regal robes, the common people will always look to their king for support." Overjoyed, the king embraced Birbal and showered him with gifts.
