

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT
MIDDLE SECTION

SUBJECT: ENGLISH

TOPIC: Conjunctions

CLASS V _____ NAME: _____ R. No: _____ Date: _____ WORKSHEET 24

Conjunctions are known as 'joining words'. They join words, parts of sentences or sentences together.

We use conjunctions to prevent sentences from sounding repetitive and awkward.

Examples

Look at these sentences:

1. We have a house. We have a garden.

We have a house and a garden

2. The fisherman is walking along the beach. The fisherman is carrying a lot of fish.

The fisherman is walking along the beach and carrying a lot of fish.

3. My friend got into the school bus. There was no seat for him.

My friend got into the school bus but there was no seat for him.

4. We walked to the school bus. We got into it.

We walked to the school bus and got into it.

5. I have a pen and a book. (joining two nouns)

6. He jumped and laughed. (joining two verbs)

7. She is beautiful and tall. (joining two adjectives)

8. He eats quickly but noisily. (Joining two adverbs)

9. I decided to consult a doctor because I was not feeling well.(to give a reason)

10. He is slow but steady. (To show a contrast)

11. Riya chopped the vegetables and Ravi cooked them. (Addition)
12. Either take these sweets or leave them. (Choice)
13. He is very wealthy, yet unhappy. (Contrast)

1. Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunctions.

(so either and when or but because)

- a. I was annoyed _____ I kept quiet.
- b. She is both clever _____ careless.
- c. There was a power cut _____ we could not study.
- d. You may eat _____ these sweets _____ those samosas.
- e. I'll come with you _____ I finish washing my clothes.
- f. I have not gone anywhere _____ my aunt came to stay with us for a week.

2. Join these sentences with conjunctions.

- a. Will you have tea? Will you have coffee?

b. She is tired. She cannot sleep.

c. They are watching TV. They are chatting.

d. He is not very strong. He works hard.

e. We did not go out to play. It was raining.

3. Fill in the blanks with appropriate conjunctions.

- a. He was tired _____ he had been working for a long time. (and, because)

- b. You will win the first prize _____ you work hard. (if, but)
- c. He took out his brush _____ began to paint. (and, or)
- d. I missed the bus _____ I reached the bus stop late. (but, because)
- e. I waited for him _____ he arrived. (till, yet)
- f. _____ it was raining we went out. (although, still)
- g. _____ he was not invited, he did not come. (since, or)
- h. _____ you are mistaken or I am. (if, either)
- i. Time _____ tide do not wait for anybody. (and, so)
- j. You won't pass the test _____ you study. (when, unless)
- k. I will allow you to play _____ you finish your homework. (if, and)

4. Fill in the blanks with suitable conjunctions.

1. He sells apples _____ oranges.
2. I did not succeed _____ I worked hard.
3. We honour him _____ he is a brave man.
4. He was poor _____ he was honest.
5. She is rich _____ she is not happy.
6. The horses _____ oxen are grazing.
7. You worked hard _____ you got the scholarship.
8. She drives fast _____ carefully too.
9. Both Abdul _____ Hamid are absent.
10. He sat down _____ he was deadly tired.
11. I fell _____ broke my leg.
12. Although the cobbler was poor _____ he was honest.
13. Both Kavita _____ Dimple are at fault.
14. Children love ice cream _____ chocolates.
15. Either eat ice-cream _____ hot samosa.