

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT MIDDLE SECTION DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

SEQUENCING A PARAGRAPH/STORY - SHORT WRITING SKILL

CLASS V _____ NAME: _____ ROLL NO _____ WORKSHEET NO : 7

Points to remember:

- It is a short writing skill.
- Sentences are given in a jumbled order.
- Read them carefully.
- Understand their meanings and rewrite them in the correct sequence. •
- Do not add anything extra. The story should be written in a paragraph. ٠

Exercise 1.

Read the given sentences and rewrite them as a paragraph in a proper sequence and give a suitable title :

- 1. One day he saw a funeral procession.
- 2. Aurangzeb was the last of the Great Mughals.
- 3. One of them replied, 'Music, Your Majesty.'
- 4. He asked his coutiers, "Who has died?"
- 5. 'Bury it deep,' said Aurangzeb, 'so that it may not raise its head again.
- 6. Aurangzeb was curious.
- 7. He hated music.
- 8. People were crying bitterly.

Exercise 2 : Read the given sentences of a story and write them as a paragraph in the correct order give a suitable title :

- 1. "Any eleven-year-old should know enough to make a wish when something is given to her by a fairy."
- 2. I had an odd dream yesterday.
- 3. The eggs were purple and oval.
- 4. I dreamt that a fairy gave me three eggs to eat.
- 5. It was creamy and sweet and had a taste I couldn't recognize.
- 6. I bit into the first one. It tasted of chocolate.
- 7. I ate up the delicious egg. Then I ate the second one.
- 8. When I had finished all the three, fairy looked at me. "Well, she asked, Did you make a wish?"
- 9. The last one was also delicious.
- 10. The second one tasted like strawberry.
- 11. "Wish?" I asked, feeling stupid. "But you didn't ask me to make a wish."