

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT
MIDDLE SECTION
DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH
SEQUENCING A PARAGRAPH/STORY - SHORT WRITING SKILL

CLASS V _____ NAME: _____ ROLL NO _____

Points to remember:

- It is a short writing skill.
- Sentences are given in a jumbled order.
- Read them carefully.
- Understand their meanings and rewrite them in the correct sequence.
- Do not add anything extra. The story should be written in a paragraph.

Exercise 1.

Read the given sentences and rewrite them as a paragraph in a proper sequence :

1. She is expecting to hear from the selectors.
2. She puts in a lot of effort and practices hard to come up at the top.
3. Sheeba is training to participate in the next Olympics.
4. She burns up a lot of energy every day so she keeps to a balanced diet.
5. If anyone disturbs her, she gets annoyed.
6. She cannot put up with any distractions during practice.
7. She is aiming high.
8. She wants to make her parents proud, by being a winner in the Olympics.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

