

The Cub Promise

I promise to do my best
To do my duty, to God and my country
To keep the Cub Law
And to do a good turn everyday.

A Cub must learn that God is everywhere. She should pray everyday, help others, honour and respect his elders and appreciate everything around him. A Cub must develop love for motherland. He must become a good and useful citizen in future.

A Good Turn means the little help given by Cubs to other people without expecting any reward in return. The habit of doing at least one good turn a day will help the cubs to prepare themselves to serve the society.

Position to be taken

1. Stand straight with your right hand raised to your shoulder level.
2. The pointer and the middle finger to be held up such that they make a "V".
3. The other three fingers will be folded with the thumb on top.

Why this position?

1. The two fingers represent the two laws.
2. The thumb on top of the three fingers signifies that the weak are protected by the strong ones.

The Bulbul Promise

I promise to do my best
To do my duty, to God and my country
To keep the Bulbul Law
And to do a good turn everyday.

A Bulbul must learn that God is everywhere. She should pray everyday, help others, honour and respect her elders and appreciate everything around her. A Bulbul must develop love for motherland. She must become a good and useful citizen in future.

A Good Turn means the little help given by Bulbuls to other people without expecting any reward in return. The habit of doing at least one good turn a day will help the Bulbuls to prepare themselves to serve the society.
