Todd awoke to singing. The singing was light and airy. It reminded him of a sunrise. He opened the door and could hear the music coming from downstairs. He walked downstairs and followed the music into the kitchen. There, he found the source of the music, but he couldn't believe his eyes! The plants on the window-sill were singing! There were three of them, all gently swaying and singing together. Todd sat and watched them. His Dad found him sitting in the kitchen watching the plants. "What's going on, Todd?" his dad asked. "What kind of plants are these?" Todd asked in return. "I didn't know plants could sing!" exclaimed Todd. "Todd, Plants don't sing. Were you dreaming?" Dad sighed. He walked over to the sink and poured water to the plants. He jumped back in surprise when the flowers started singing! Todd and his dad made sure to take very good care of their singing plants and enjoyed their songs for many years.
