DO NOT QUARREL

Two little boys were playing together .A little boy saw a nut on the ground. Before he could pick it, the other boy took it.

The first boy asked, " Give me the nut. It's mine. I only saw it first ".

The other boy replied, "It's mine. I only took it. "

This lead to a quarrel between these two little boys. Just then a tall boy came that way. On seeing the quarrel between the boys he said, "Give me the nut and I'll settle your quarrel. "

He split the nut into two parts.

He took out the seed from the nut. He gave one half shell to one boy and other half shell to the other. He put the seed into his mouth and said, "This is for settling your quarrel".

MORAL: When two people quarrel, someone else gains.

THE BEAR AND THE TWO FRIENDS

Once two friends were walking through a forest. They knew that they could face a problem any time in the forest. So they promised each other that they would remain together in case of any problem.

Suddenly they saw a large bear coming close to them. One of the friends at once climbed a nearby tree. But the other one did not know how to climb. So he thought of an idea. He lay down on the ground acting to be a dead man.

The bear came near the man lying on the ground. It sniffed around his ears and slowly left the place. Bears do not touch dead creatures. The friend on the tree came down and asked his friend on the ground, "Friend, What did the bear tell you in your ears? "

The other friend replied, "The bear advised me not to believe a false friend. "

Moral: True friend is the one who always helps you.
