

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT PRIMARY SECTION

Subject: SCIENCE - Worksheet No. 3	Name:
Topic : Adaptations In Animals	Std IV Sec.
Resource person: Ms. Flora Reddy	Roll No:
Teacher's Signature:	Date:

I. Look at the animal shown and answer the following.

1. Identify the animal _____

2. Mention its food habit.

---

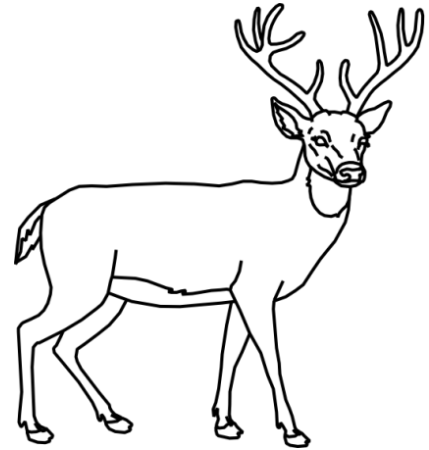

---

3. What kind of teeth does it have?

---

---

---

4. How does it protect itself from its predators?

---

---

---

II. Answer the following.

a. Name an animal that stays in water like fish but has no gills to breathe in water. It gives birth to babies like a tiger but does not live in a forest.

---

b. How does it breathe then?

---

---

---

IV. Think and answer.

- a. Imagine a camel being sent to Alaska, a very cold place.
Do you think the camel will be able to survive there? Why?

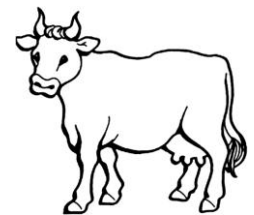

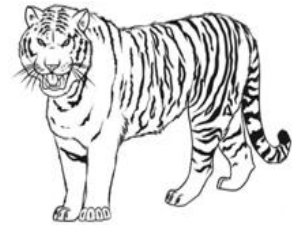

---

---

---

---

- c. Who do you think will spend more energy to find food- a carnivore or an herbivore? Can you say why?

---

---

---

---

V. THINK AND ANSWER.

- a. What are wild life sanctuaries?

---

---

- b. Why should they be protected ?

---

---

- c. Mention any one way to save them.

---

---

II. Correct the given false statements.

a. A mosquito has teeth to suck the blood of other animals.

---

---

b. Porcupines have hard shells covering their body to defend themselves.

---

---

III. Give Reason.

a. Carnivores have strong legs.

---

---

---

---

---

---