

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT PRIMARY SECTION
Subject : SOCIAL STUDIES	Name : _____ Roll No. _____
Topic : FORESTS OF INDIA	Std : IV _____ Date : _____
Worksheet No : 2	Remarks :
Resource Person : Ms. ESTHER AJAY	Teacher's Signature :

I. Fill in the blanks.

1. The kind of trees or other plants that grow in a forest depend on the _____ and _____ of the place.
2. _____ is used as a fuel.
3. Forests prevent _____ and control floods.
4. _____ and _____ are important natural resource.
5. Mountain forests are also called _____.

II. Give Reason.

1. Government has established several National Parks and Wildlife Sanctuaries.

---

---

III. Name the five different types of forests in India.

- i. _____
- ii. _____
- iii. _____
- iv. _____
- v. _____

IV. Differentiate between

Thorny Forests	Coniferous Forests

V. Answer the following questions.

Q1. What is your contribution to the conservation of forests?

Ans. _____
_____
_____

Q2. What is Chipko Movement?

Ans. _____
_____
_____

Q3. Name some trees that grow in evergreen forests.

Ans. _____

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT PRIMARY SECTION
Subject : SOCIAL STUDIES	Name : _____ Roll No. _____
Topic : FORESTS OF INDIA	Std. IV _____ Date : _____
Worksheet No.	Remarks :
Resource Person : Ms. ESTHER AJAY	Teacher's Signature :

I Fill in the blanks:

1. The kind of trees or other plants that grow in a forest depend on the climate and soil of the place.
2. Firewood is used as a fuel.
3. Forests prevent soil erosion and control floods.
4. Forests and soil are important natural resource.
5. Mountain forests are also called Coniferous forests.

II. Give Reason:

1. Government has established several National Parks and Wildlife Sanctuaries.

The Government has established several National Parks and Wildlife sanctuaries to prevent deforestation and to conserve wildlife.

III. Name the five different types of forests in India.

Ans i. Evergreen forests

ii. Deciduous forests or Monsoon forests

iii. Thorn forests

iv. Mountain or Coniferous forests

v. Marshy or Tidal forests

IV. Differentiate between:

Thorny Forests	Coniferous Forests
1. They are found in areas with little rainfall.	1. They are mostly covered with tall cone shaped trees and needle shaped leaves.
2. Thorny forests are found in Rajasthan and parts of Deccan Plateau.	2. Coniferous forests are found in the Himalayan region.
3. Egs – Keekar, babool and thorny shrubs.	3. Egs – Fir, pine, spruce, deodar and oak.

V. Answer the following questions.

Q1. What is your contribution to the conservation of forests?

Ans. We should not cut trees and must protect it.

We should nurture and grow more trees.

Q2. What is the Chipko Movement?

Ans. The Chipko Movement was a forest conservation movement in India that began in 1974.

This movement was led by SunderlalBahaguna. The aim was to protect the trees in the forest from deforestation.

Q3. Name some trees that grow in evergreen forests.

Ans. Some trees that grow in evergreen forests are : ebony, rosewood and mahogany.