

PRIMARY SECTION
PERIODIC TEST - 1
SCIENCE

GRADE IV

DATE /05/19

SET A

TOTAL MARKS: 20

A. Choose the correct option.

4 Marks

1. Floating plants have spongy bodies as they _____.
a) are filled with water b) are filled with air
2. To save water, desert plants have _____ .
a) thick fleshy leaves b) sharp spines
3. A part of the food is used by the plant for_____.
a) absorbing sunlight b) making flowers , fruits and seeds
4. Oxygen from the air is used by _____.
a) dead plants and animals b) all living things to breathe

B. Give one word for each the following sentences.

5 Marks

1. Trees that shed their leaves in winter.
2. Tiny holes found on the underside of the leaf.
3. Trees that have cones instead of flowers.
4. Plants that grow on land.
5. Gas which the leaves take from air to make food.

C. Define the following terms.

1 Mark

1. Photosynthesis

D. Answer the following questions.

4 Marks

1. Why do trees shed their leaves in winter?
2. Where do plants store extra food?
3. How do the roots of a mangrove tree help these plants to survive?
4. What are the functions of veins?

E. Differentiate between Lotus and Hydrilla

2 Marks

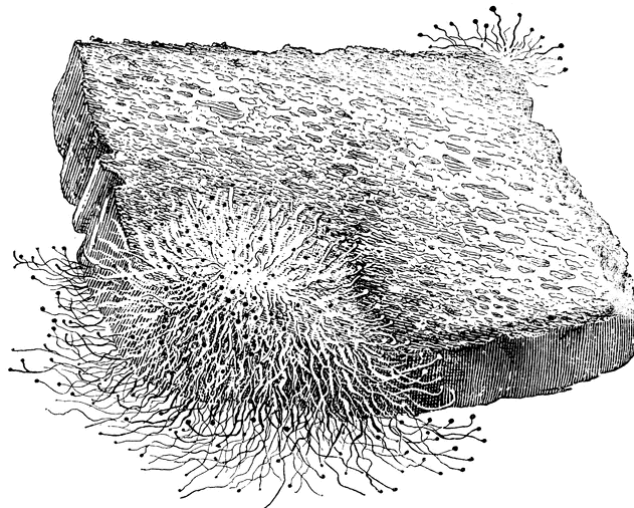

F. Give reason.

2 Marks

1. Some plants eat insects.
2. Sunlight is very important for plants to make food.

G. Look at the picture and answer the questions given below.

2 Marks

1. Why the above shown plant is non- green?
2. Where do these plants get their food from?