Bump! Bump! Scratch! Adam opened his eyes and stared around his room, searching the darkness. The closet door moved as something banged on it from the inside. "Who's there?" Adam asked in a shaky voice. The closet slowly began to open. Adam jumped out of his bed and ran to his brother's room. Adam jumped onto David's bed and on David's arm.

"There's something in my closet! It wasn't a dream. I was awake, and the closet door started opening by itself!", Adam cried. David reached into his desk drawer and pulled out a flashlight. Then they headed to Adam's room. He could hear something scratching his closet door. "Do you hear that?" Adam asked. David nodded. He walked over to Adam's bed and pulled the case off one of the pillows. He opened the pillowcase. "You open the door very slowly, and I'll grab whatever it is." Adam pulled the closet door slightly.

Something banged against the door, trying to force it open. Adam opened the door a few more inches. A small furry creature ran right into the pillowcase. "I got it!" David said, closing the pillowcase and holding it in the air. "What is it?" David peeked inside. David put the pillowcase on the bed and an orange cat climbed out. Adam scooped the cat up. "Apricot? How did you get trapped in my closet?" David laughed. "The poor cat. If I was locked in your closet, I'd be banging on the door to get out, too!" "Poor, Apricot," Adam said.
