5.	Section: Fifth	6x1
	This is question of ‘Application Skill’ and long answer type. A candidate is expected to choose any of the following topics and write all its aspects. (i) Explain about the Modern Trends in Indian Art. Indian art during the period 1900-1925 came to be dominated by the Bengal School but the revivalists failed to strike any permanency because of the lack of originality. They will be remembered for their effort to revive the classical Indian tradition based on epic and mythology through their paintings. But they lacked the social consciousness of the classical times of Indian history and indifferent to cotemporary Indian values. Abanindranath and Nandlal will be remembered as pioneer of a movement which failed. The artists after 1925 refused slavish imitation of the mannerism of the art of the past. They felt that such imitation shackle the imagination of the artists and not liberate it. Such art remained only and illustrative art unable to express the intensity of the times. Gaganendranath though a contemporary, tried cubistic painting influenced by

	European cubism. Rabindranath in his painting tried expressionism. A host of other artists like Nirod Mayumdar, Rathin Maitra, Gopal Ghosh, Paritosh Sen attempted a change in their outlook on art. Figurative drawing has been replaced by abstract painting trying to search beauty in formlessness. Somnath Hore, Jyoti Bhatt, Anupam Sud brought variety in Modern Indian Art by their graphic prints. Or (ii) Origin and development of Bengal School of Painting. Indian art stood at the crossroad after the decline of Mughal Empire, and the beginning of the British colonial rule after the mutiny of 1857. By the end of the century, the smaller feudal states where art survived for sometime were annexed one by the British rulers. Indian painting reached almost a dead end. The British ruler in the mean time had set-up art schools at Bombay, Madras (1850) and Calcutta (1854), and by systematic propaganda successfully persuaded the educated Indians to believe that Indians had no cultural heritage of their own. At this point of our identity crisis, there came some highly gifted artists who tried in their own way to give a sense of direction to the art movement of the country and created confidence in the traditional values and rich heritage of Indian Art and made the Indians conscious of the fact. Their efforts included Raja Ravi Varma, Abanindranath Tagore, Gaganendranath Tagore, Rabindranath Tagore, Nandlal Bose and Jamini Roy and ably supported by E.B. Havell, the principal of Government Art School at Calcutta. This Enthused the Indian artists to turn for inspiration to true native tradition. A group of Bengal artists gave birth to a new painting style based on old Indian traditional paintings of Ajanta, Bagh, Rajput and Mughal art. They created a sort of new renaissance under the guidance and leadership of Abanindranath Tagore. Thus under the influence of Principal E.B. Havell and Abanindranath, Indian artists looked back the traditional painting of Indian with respect and got themselves separated from the blind copying of the lifeless western realism. Thus was born the Bengal School of which is more a style than a regional development, is the first school representing important art movement in modern India. During this period all types of painting, religious, social and historical events, birds, animals and landscapes were painted in this style.
