Reference

These couplets are taken from the poem "عيد إستقلال الهند" written by the Indian poet Ali Abdu Dahir Hussain from الهند بعد الاستقلال

British ruled India for many years till the 20th century . Before Independence , our country was at the mercy of her foreign , rules . They did whatever they liked for the good of their own country

Explanation

- The poet starts his poem by saluting the country and its people by stating they are peace loving people. India is the cradle of philosophy . It has rich and diverse philosophical tradition ,dating back to ancient times. India gave birth to many great philosophers.
- India went ahead and proceeded in to its own stirring and struggling with great patience and determination . It faced distress and misery with a smile.
- At last it achieved what it had desired . It won the freedom after that English rule, In result of the people who launches the struggle for independence throughout the nation .It gained its own position which is high and glorious in the world.
