

INDIAN SCHOOL MUSCAT

FIRST PERIODIC TEST

HOME SCIENCE

CLASS: X

Sub. Code: 064

Time Allotted: 50 mts.

25.04.2022

Max. Marks: 20

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Attempt all the questions.

1. -----is a continuous process involving changes. 1
2. The development proceeds from head to toe is called----- 1
(proximodistal, cephalocaudal, transistory change, milestone)
3. What is a social smile? 1
4. What is the importance of milestone? 1
5. State the age at which an infant's birth weight doubles and triples. 1
6. Differentiate between gross motor skill and fine motor skill. Give one example each. 2
7. State any two indicators of social development of 7 months. 2
8. Differentiate between growth and development. 2
9. Write any three principles of development. 3
10. Write any three characteristics of language development in early childhood. 3
11. Language development is an ability to communicate own needs and thoughts to others. Since speech is a complicated skill, babies use simpler forms of speech called pre-speech forms of communication like cries, gestures, babbling

Based on the above information, answer the following questions:

- a. At what age does the child start babbling? 1

- b. Write any one precaution the parents should adopt while teaching language to their child. 1
- c. Give an example for pre-speech form of communication. 1

END OF THE QUESTION PAPER